CLOSE CALL FOR ANOTHER

Exit Experience for Two Men Between Brattleboro and Newfane
When They Met An Automobile.

Brattleboro, July 21.—S. H. Abel of Hartford, Conn., a traveling salesman, and a companion had a close call from death yesterday as the result of a run-away. While driving along the road between Brattleboro and Newfane, their team was met by an automobile traveling at a fast clip.

The horse became frightened, and dashing down the road kicked the dashboard of the wagon to pieces and also kicked Mr. Abel from the wagon, bruising him severely and tearing his clothing. He alighted in a ditch by the roadside.

While his companion was endeavoring to stop the horse his feet became entangled in the reins and he was pulled over the side of the wagon, his head lodging on the rear axle, between the wheels and the wagon body, his feet remaining in the body of the wagon.

After a short run the horse stopped and Mr. Abel was able to jump into the team and rescue his companion from his precarious position.

DRAMATIC SCENE
IN FRENCH COUNCILHot Words Bandied Back and Forth and Then The Cabinet Was Defeated
Clemenceau Cabinet Was Defeated.

Paris, July 21.—The Clemenceau cabinet fell suddenly last night under dramatic circumstances at the conclusion of a violent debate over the naval armaments, extending over several days. M. Delcasse, chairman of the investigating commission, led the attack upon the naval administration, especially during the conference in the government, during the incumbency of M. Poincaré and M. Thomson, former ministers of marine. But M. Poincaré, who succeeded M. Thomson, had promised in the name of the government to complete a series of reforms, both in the administration of the department and the methods of construction, and the chamber was ready to vote confidence in the government, when an incident occurred which changed a majority into a minority.

Premier Clemenceau, who always has been an adversary of M. Delcasse, smarting under the criticisms, and doubtless overconfident of a majority which on July 15 upon the general policy of the government was 182, trusted the ex-minister of foreign affairs who was thrown overboard by the Rouvier ministry at the dictation of Germany during the crisis of 1905, with having led France to humiliation at Algeiras. The specter of that chapter of France's foreign history in which Delcasse was accredited, was a fatal error. Instantly there was an uproar of dissent from both sides of the chamber. Delcasse flung back the taunt in Clemenceau's face with bitter words, denouncing, amid cheers, that France had gone to Algeiras in the interest of peace.

Hot words were bandied back and forth. It was a veritable duel between two enemies. M. Delcasse intimated that Clemenceau had inspired articles in the foreign press during the crisis but the latter emphatically denied this imputation. The Premier seemed for the first time in his parliamentary career to lose his head. Finally, M. Delcasse, as he was entering upon an explanation of the situation of 1905, drew himself up proudly and said:

"I shall say nothing further on that subject; I have nothing to fear. Nothing in the past, nothing in our common memories of 25 years embarrases me. If I look back I see I have left something besides ruins."

Then, turning directly to Clemenceau, he said:

"You were president of the naval investigating commission of 1904. Your unparagoned attacks upon every government during 25 years seemed sufficient guarantee that you would find the root of the evil. What were the results, I ask?"

M. Clemenceau, now evidently in a rage, tried to parry the thrust by retorting to the charge.

"Your policy, as foreign minister," he shouted, "led us to the greatest humiliation France has experienced in twenty years."

Another storm of hostile cries arose. But the Premier tried to assume his old cynical air. "Oh, no false indignation, I pray you," he exclaimed. "You brought us to the verge of a war without military preparation?"

Again the tumult was rebuked.

"Yes," he shouted above the roar, "the whole world knew that the ministers of war and the navy, when the question was put to them, replied that France was not ready. I have not humiliated France; Delcasse has done that."

The scene when the Premier took his seat was indescribable. Amid the wildest excitement the vote was taken, and when it was announced that the government had been beaten, 213 to 170 Clemenceau clapped his hat on his head, pulling it far down over his eyes and stalked out of the chamber, followed by the other ministers, in token that he intended to resign.

M. Clemenceau went immediately to the Elvess palace and told the story to President Fallieres, who seemed stupefied at the incident which caused the fall of the cabinet, but he accepted the resignation of the Premier and his ministers.

WONDERFUL FLIGHT
BY ORVILLE WRIGHTCut All Sorts of Antics in His Aero-plane and Astonished Several Thousands of People Who Had Gathered to See Exhibition.

Washington, D. C., July 21.—With his aeroplane in perfect condition, Orville Wright is making preparations for the official trials. He will probably attempt an hour's endurance test this afternoon, accompanied by Lieutenant Fowler. It was to be a straight-away speed flight and return.

Yesterday's performance when Orville Wright established a new American record of one hour, 20 minutes and 45 seconds in the air was as far, said Wilbur Wright, as going from Washington to Baltimore, and equalling the crossing of the English Channel and returning without stopping. During the entire flight the machine was under perfect control. Several thousand people witnessed the exhibition which included the most daring feat of aviation yet accomplished. The machine traveled about 70 miles. It was estimated by Wilbur Wright, and at one time the height attained, between 250 and 280 feet, exceeded the highest point ever reached by a heavier than air machine on this continent. The most wonderful part of the flight was the execution of three complete "figure eights."

Not the slightest mishap occurred. A thrill passed through the spectators as the white flyer, apparently beginning to dive to the earth, would regain its equilibrium and speed onward around the oval above the parade grounds.

Then after rounding the course half a hundred times the aviator directed the machine's course around the small double circles of a "figure eight." It was the second time during his career he has executed this manoeuvre.

To the amazement of the crowd the machine described a second eight and then a third one, after which it was guided back to its former course of large oval.

Three members of President Taft's cabinet, Secretary of the Navy Meyer, Attorney-General Wickersham and Postmaster-General Hitchcock were on hand early. Senators Keam and Elkins, Chief Signal Officer General Allen and Surgeon-General Horney of the army, and Rear Admiral Hutchins, U. S. Navy, were also present.

The machine was released from the starting point at 2:30 o'clock. The aeroplane arose gradually to a height of 75 feet before making the first turn. After passing the starting point the machine rose to a height of about 150 feet which was maintained until toward the end of the flight.

After he had been in the air half an hour, Mr. Wright manoeuvred the machine through several short circles, some not more than 20 feet in diameter. Then after circling the field 34 times, the machine started cutting the "figure eight."

When he had completed these clever manoeuvres the aviator started to make a showing in regard to height. Slowly the aeroplane rose to a higher altitude on each lap until it had reached to a height of 250 and 280 feet from the ground. At this altitude the machine flew half a dozen rounds, then gradually descended and made a successful landing after completing 85 rounds of the field.

In the flight Mr. Wright met every requirement set forth by the government except that of carrying one passenger and making the five mile straight away run.

ACCIDENT TO MATHEWSON.

Leading Pitcher of National League Out of Game for a Time.

New York, July 21.—New York's chances for the National League pennant received a serious setback yesterday afternoon when, in the seventh inning of the game with St. Louis, "Crispy" Mathewson, the team's star pitcher, had the second finger of his left hand broken in stopping a liner from Delcasse's bat. Mathewson has been New York's one consistent winner this season and has not been defeated since May 24.

The big pitcher had to leave the game at once and a surgeon who attended to his injuries reported that it would be at least two weeks before he could twirl again. Manager McGraw was bandaging heavily on Mathewson in the series with Chicago starting Thursday.

IN CRITICAL CONDITION

Mrs. Mabel H. Jacobs, Alleged to Have Been Discovered With a Man Not
Her Husband, Drank Poison During Interview With Husband.

Worcester, Mass., July 21.—Rather than face the members of her family in Old Falls, Vt., after she had become involved in a love affair with a man other than her husband, Mrs. Mabel A. Jacobs, aged 39 years, drank muriatic acid yesterday. She is in the City hospital with the chances against her recovery.

She is the wife of Frederick Jacobs. Until recently both were employed at the state colony for insane at Grafton, he as an attendant and she as a cook.

There was also in the employ of the colony another attendant, John M. Logan, and it is claimed he and Mrs. Jacobs became very much interested in each other. Early in May Jacobs became ill and was brought to the Worcester city hospital for an operation. He was discharged June 17 and a few days later Jacobs visited the colony. He found his wife had disappeared and that nothing of his belongings was left but a few old clothes. Logan was also gone.

Jacobs instituted a search and claims he found Logan and his wife were living together in this city. He was willing to forgive her and make an appointment with her for yesterday to see if she would return to their former home in Bellows Falls. Mrs. Jacobs slept last night in a room at 27 Chatham street, provided for her by the Y. M. C. A., and Jacobs visited her at the room yesterday morning. He says he had agreed to forgive her and they were discussing plans for going back to Vermont when she placed a two-ounce bottle of muriatic acid to her lips and drank half the contents, falling back on the bed, where she had been sitting. Dr. Royal P. Watkins ordered the woman's removal to the city hospital. The woman carried the bottle of acid in her hand all during her husband's visit.

POET IN A LAW SUIT.

Will Carleton a Litigant in Windham County Court.

Brattleboro, July 21.—Famous for its connections with well-known people, the case of Niles against Carleton was concluded at Newfane yesterday afternoon at the closing of the spring and summer term of Windham county court which has been in session since the first of April. No decision was given, the court reserving its judgment.

The case in question was that of Dr. E. Niles of Boston against the estate of Adora Carleton and others, appellants. Adora Carleton, who was the wife of Will Carleton of New York City, the famous poet and author, died in 1904. Dr. Niles and his brother, J. H. Niles, also of Boston, and Mrs. Carleton purchased a large estate in the town of Halifax in 1895 holding the property in joint ownership. Dr. Niles claims to have made repairs on the house and outbuildings to the extent of $4,500 under an agreement with Mrs. Carleton that he should be allowed to pay one-third of this sum.

Freeman Scott of Brattleboro, administrator of her estate, and Will Carleton, her husband, deny such contract and claim that Dr. Niles made the repairs for his own convenience and without the knowledge of Mrs. Carleton.

ROBBING A DEAD MAN.

The Corpse Held Three Bills in Its Mouth.

New York, July 21.—Michael Murphy an East Side character, was interrupted last night in the cheerful operation of prying open the mouth of a corpse, and thereby hangs a mystery. Murphy is held by the police.

When discovered in an undertaking establishment fumbling with a man's body who he says was a friend of his, Murphy admitted that he was looking for money. Examination thereupon revealed three $5 bills in the dead man's mouth. They had been there since Sunday last when Andrew Erickson, whose blue lips were closed over the currency, died in Jamaica Bay.

To the police Murphy told a weird story. He said he and Erickson had lured a drunken sailor to a boat and had robbed him. Then an ex-broker, says Murphy and Erickson stuffed part of the money in his mouth to keep it dry jumped overboard after it. He sank, says Murphy, but the police think there may have been a struggle, for Erickson's head bears a deep gash.

ATTACHES RAILROAD PROPERTY.

Woman Is Suing Rutland Street Railroad For Damages.

Rutland, July 21.—Property to the extent of $1,500 belonging to the Rutland Railway, Light & Power company has been attached on a county court writ in which Mrs. Rebecca Myers of West Rutland is the plaintiff.

Mrs. Myers is suing the corporation to receive compensation for injuries received in a collision at Center Rutland August 7, 1907, between two cars which were, as the declaration alleges, being run in a careless and negligent manner. The plaintiff was a passenger on the west bound car and was thrown from her seat against the back of another seat and her arms and back were bruised, she claims. The plaintiff further avers that she was sick and lame for a long space of time and because of the accident was unable to attend to her business affairs and household duties.

The case is returnable at the March, 1910, term of Rutland county court. Mrs. Myers' counsel are Ernest H. O'Brien of this city and William Foley of West Rutland.

It will be remembered that the accident complained of in this case happened on a curve in Center Rutland where the track was laid on one side by a subway and the plaintiff avers that the defendant company was negligent in allowing the subway to grow there.

The report of the board of railroad commissioners in regard to the accident shows that the cause of the accident was the negligence of the conductor and motorman on the regular east bound car to notify the crew of the regular west bound car that an extra car was following.

MOTHER ARRESTED FOR
SEIZING HER CHILDRENShe Ran Away With Them From Home
For Children in Burlington—Both
The Mother and The Father
Were Afterwards Arrested.

Burlington, July 21.—The usual placidity and routine of life at the Home for Destitute Children received a severe jolt yesterday afternoon when Mrs. John Lamphere of Milton tried to get away with her two children, who had been placed in the Home by the Milton authorities. Both the Lamphere woman and her husband, were caught and placed in jail last night by Deputy Sheriff Todd, awaiting further investigation. Although Lamphere was not concerned directly in the taking of the children away, he is held as it is thought that he was connected with the plot.

Mrs. Lamphere called at the Home yesterday morning and asked if she might have the children, one of whom, a girl, is an infant 15 months of age, and the other, a boy, is four years old. Upon being told that the matron in charge had no authority to give her the children, she consulted the president of the association, Mrs. Susan Platt, and was told by Mrs. Platt that the children were placed in the home by the Milton authorities and could not be taken out.

Mrs. Lamphere took no further action in the forenoon, but about three o'clock in the afternoon returned to the home where she telephoned the police and the room ran into the nursery and, seizing her smaller child, ran out of the house with it. In the yard she met the boy and ran with both down Shelburne road beyond Potash brook and concealed them in the woods near the road. Here she was met by her husband. The matron at once telephoned the police and they assisted by the steward, J. Barker and his son, captured the party half an hour later. They were taken to the home and there held until the arrival of Deputy Sheriff Todd, who afterwards took Mr. and Mrs. Lamphere to the jail.

The Lamphere family have had an up and down struggle to keep their children at their home in Milton. A few weeks ago Mrs. Lamphere went away to work, leaving these two children with relatives, who apparently did not wish to support them. As there is no home for children in Milton and the authorities did not wish to take them to the poor farm, the only other alternative was to place them in this home and pay for their maintenance, which was done about a week ago.

Upon the return of the mother and her discovery of the children's whereabouts, she came at once to this city to get them. Although the children have not been formally surrendered by the parents, it is not thought that they have a right to them since the Milton authorities have placed them here. Mrs. Lamphere confessed after her arrest that the plan was to conceal the children in the woods until after dark when they would be removed to their home in Milton.

Rev. Edward D. Hickey Not Given Imprisonment Because of Health.

Woodstock, July 21.—The case of state vs. the Rev. Edward D. Hickey, for an assault upon Evelyn Johnson, with an attempt to commit rape, was called up for sentence at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. During the noon recess, certain matters relating to the physical condition of the respondent and the effect of that condition upon the man were brought to the attention of the court confidentially.

At 2 o'clock Dr. V. T. Kidder testified to an examination of Father Hickey and finding that, in his opinion, Father Hickey's right lung was affected with tuberculosis. Respective counsel having addressed the court in the matter of sentence, the court sentenced the respondent to pay a fine of $10.00, but no imprisonment sentence was imposed as the respondent is thought to be tubercular.

BULLET FLATTENED IN SKULL.

And Bennington Man's Attempt at Suicide Failed.

Bennington, July 21.—Philip Keenan, about 30 years of age, attempted to commit suicide Monday night by shooting himself in the head with a revolver. The bullet, however, though fired from a .32-caliber weapon, flattened against the man's skull and unless blood poisoning develops he will recover.

Keenan has been drinking heavily for months and Monday night after he had driven his wife out of the house, he made the attempt at self-destruction by shooting himself between the eyes. After firing the shot he ran to a neighbor's house where his wife had taken refuge to bid her good-bye.

The physician found an ugly wound made by the ball as it ploughed upward across the man's forehead but they are of the opinion that there is no permanent injury.

There will be a regular meeting of St. John's Court 522, Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock.

There is something mysterious about them that makes one sit right up and take particular notice of what is going on. They left New York three weeks ago going by boat to New Bedford, then by trolley to Boston and boat to Portland. From Portland their real work began. Each was equipped with a pack basket and his share of the camp outfit and they struck out. They are camping wherever night overtakes them, having a silk tent which is large enough for all.

They stopped several days in the White Mountains and climbed each important peak of the Presidential range including Mount Washington. They have spent two and one half weeks coming from Portland and expect to be another week reaching Lake Champlain as they will ascend some of the principal peaks of the Green mountains on their way.

The party is composed of George Pearson, K. O. Rondwitz, Marshall Stewart and Ward Renfrew.
